THE REPLY FILED 11 August 2009 FAILS TO PLACE THIS APPLICATION IN CONDITION FOR ALLOWANCE.

1. ☒ The reply was filed after a final rejection, but prior to or on the same day as filing a Notice of Appeal. To avoid abandonment of this application, applicant must timely file one of the following replies: (1) an amendment, affidavit, or other evidence, which places the application in condition for allowance; (2) a Notice of Appeal (with appeal fee) in compliance with 37 CFR 41.31; or (3) a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) in compliance with 37 CFR 1.114. The reply must be filed within one of the following time periods:

- a) ☒ The period for reply expires 3 months from the mailing date of the final rejection.
 b) ☐ The period for reply expires on: (1) the mailing date of this Advisory Action, or (2) the date set forth in the final rejection, whichever is later. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of the final rejection.

The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

NOTICE OF APPEAL

2. ☐ The Notice of Appeal was filed on _____. A brief in compliance with 37 CFR 41.37 must be filed within two months of the date of filing the Notice of Appeal (37 CFR 41.37(a)), or any extension thereof (37 CFR 41.37(e)), to avoid dismissal of the appeal. Since a Notice of Appeal has been filed, any reply must be filed within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 41.37(a).

Continuation of 11, does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Regarding the argument directed to claim 71 and Moody; the examiner views it as duplication because the game of Moody need only be applied to each output hand of the first game, generating a total of 9 hands. Any extra bets are not required by Moody during play of the game and paytables and displays would be inherent in order to redo the base operation on the three output hands of Moody. As for claim 70, it is also understood that a single representation of what a Moody and Carrico combination would produce is not an argument that Moody and Carrico teaching away from the claimed invention; most combinations of art yield three or four ways to combine them. The important part is that all the limitations art taught between Moody and Carrico and in view of rational E. of the recent KSR decision, it is "obvious to try" - choosing from a finite number of predictable solutions. The applicant has failed to show a limitation foreign to both prior art references. And as for the new limitations, the scope of the claims has changed and will require further search. The request does not place the application in condition of allowance. Further, the scope of claims 70 and 71 has added features that will require further search and/or consideration.
